Teaching Knowledge Test

Flexible assessment for language teachers

TKT is a test of teaching knowledge. Preparing for TKT can help you learn more about teaching English and increase your confidence as an English language teacher.

A flexible, modular format

TKT is divided into modules which are tested separately. You can take them all or as many as you need. There's total flexibility in how and when you take the modules – you get a certificate for each one you complete.

Core modules

Module 1: Background to language teaching

Tests your knowledge of the terms and concepts of English language teaching. It focuses on the factors underpinning the learning of English.

Module 2: Planning for language teaching

Focuses on the knowledge and skills you need to plan lessons. It also looks at assessment and resources that can guide your lesson planning.

Module 3: Classroom management

Tests your knowledge of what happens in the classroom during language learning, and the teacher's role in classroom management.

Practical: Assessment of teaching competence

Gives formal confirmation of your practical teaching competence.

Specialist modules

TKT: Knowledge about Language

Tests your knowledge and understanding of the systems of the English language from a teaching perspective.

TKT: Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL)

Tests your understanding of teaching curriculum subjects through the medium of a second or third language.

TKT: Young Learners

Tests your knowledge of the strategies and skills required to teach young learners – ideal if you're working in primary education.

How are TKT modules assessed?

For any of the modules except TKT: Practical, you take a single paper of 80 questions. It lasts 1 hour 20 minutes.

For TKT: Practical, a Cambridge English assessor will observe your teaching. The assessment can take place as part of a teacher training course, or with your own class if you are already teaching. You will also complete a lesson plan for assessment.

“Taking TKT was a positive experience. It offers a great opportunity for teachers to qualify for an internationally recognised award.”

Lorena Ariaga
English Teacher, Ecuador

More than 90% of teachers sampled who took TKT in Thailand said they found it useful or very useful, and over 80% said it had motivated them to continue developing as teachers.
